SCO summit approves setting up of Development Bank

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ Tianjin

Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi on Monday announced that the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) member states have decided to set up a Development Bank to increase the efficiency and social development of the region. The approval to set up the bank, a Chinese proposal, came after 10 years of deliberations among the member countries,

Wang said. He added that the new bank will increase the efficiency and social development of the region. He, however, did not indicate any timeline to set up the bank. The SCO will launch this important process, and there will be one more multilateral platform in the EuroAsian region, he said. It is a good thing to celebrate not only for the member states but also for our region, Wang said. Chinese President Xi Jinping, in his inaugural address earlier, urged SCO member states to accelerate the creation of a development bank, considering the growing appeal of the 10-nation bloc. China had been pushing the grouping to set up a development bank on the lines of the New Development Bank (NDB) of the BRICS and the Asian Investment Infrastructure Bank, in which India is the second largest shareholder. Both banks, based in China, which were initially

Founded in 2001 in Shanghai, the SCO now includes Russia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, China, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, India, Pakistan, Iran and Belarus. Afghanistan and Mongolia are observer states, and 14 other countries serve as dialogue partners. The SCO has an extended family of 27, Wang said. In another development, Pakistan and Armenia have agreed to establish diplomatic relations, shedding their differences, Wang said. Wang said the leaders witnessed the unveiling of the four security centres—the SCO universal centre for countering security challenges and threats, the information security centre, the centre combating transnational crimes.

Putin blames West for Ukraine conflict

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
■ Tianjin

The West's constant attempts to draw Kiev into NATO is one of the main causes of the Ukrainian conflict, Russian President Vladimir Putin said at the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) summit.

Putin claimed that the crisis arose largely because of the "coup d'etat in Kiev in 2014, which was provoked by the West" Russian news agency Tass reported. "The second reason for the crisis is the West's constant attempts to draw Ukraine into NATO. As we have repeatedly emphasised, this poses a direct threat to Russia's security," he said. In February 2014, deadly clashes between protesters and state forces in the capital Kyiv culminated in the ousting of then president Viktor Yanukovich. According to the Russian president, "as a result of the coup in 2014, the political leadership of the country that did not support Ukraine's accession to NATO was removed." Putin arrived in Tianjin on Sunday to take part in the summit of the 10-member bloc. He later attended the opening banquet hosted by Chinese President Xi Jinping. His presence at the SCO summit shifted focus on the Russia-Ukraine conflict, unsuccessful attempts by US President Donald Trump to work out a ceasefire and pressuring India with heavy tariffs for buying Russian oil.

Houthis raid UN offices in Yemen

ASSOCIATED PRESS
■ Cairo

Iran-backed Houthis on Sunday raided offices of the United Nations' food, health and children's agencies in Yemen's capital, detaining 11 UN employees, officials said.

The rebels tightened security across Sanaa following the Israeli killing of their prime minister and several Cabinet members.

Abeer Etefa, a spokesperson for the World Food Program, told The Associated Press that security forces raided the agencies' offices in the Houthi-controlled capital on Sunday morning.

Also raided were offices of the World Health Organization and UNICEF, according to a UN official and a Houthi official, who spoke on condition of anonymity because they were not authorised to brief the media.

The UN official said armed forces raided the offices and questioned employees in the parking lot. Ammar Ammar, a spokesperson for UNICEF, said a number of the agency's staffers were detained, and UNICEF was seeking additional information from the Houthis.

Both Etefa and Ammar said their agencies were conducting "a comprehensive head count" of their employees in Sanaa and other Houthi-held areas.

UN Secretary-General António Guterres in a statement late Sunday said at least 11 personnel had been detained. He condemned that and the "forced entry into the premises of the World Food Program, the seizure of UN property and attempts to enter other UN premises in Sanaa." He called for the immediate and unconditional release of the personnel. The raids were the latest in a long-running Houthi crackdown against the UN and other international organisations working in rebel-held areas in Yemen.

They have detained dozens of UN staffers, as well as people associated with aid groups, civil society and the now-closed US Embassy.
